EMBASSY OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA
NEW DELHI

KND/POL/11/409

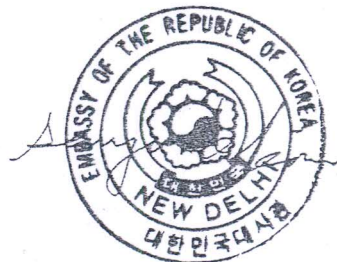

The Embassy of the Republic of Korea presents its compliments to the Ministry of Rural Development of the Republic of India and has the honour to inform the latter that the Korea Saemaul Undong Center is organizing a training program for government officials to share experiences in the area of rural development from 17 to 26 October, 2011. It may be noted that the Saemaul Undong (New Village) Movement was a Korean government initiated rural development campaign on the basis of self-reliance principle in the 1970s which modernized the rural communities of Korea.

The Embassy has further the honour to inform the Ministry that Korea Saemaul Undong Center is inviting nominations for the above mentioned training program from different countries and it would highly appreciate it if the latter could kindly nominate four working level government officials to participate in the said training program, latest by 7th November, details of which are enclosed herewith. The center will bear the cost of roundtrip airfare, accommodation and local conveyance. It is requested that the passport copies of the nominated candidates kindly be attached with the nominations.

The Embassy of the Republic of Korea avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Rural Development of the Republic of India the assurances of its highest consideration.
